Good Friday (7:30 pm Service)

WELCOME

Tenebrae (Latin for “darkness”) was the name given to the medieval predawn morning prayer celebrated by monks during the last three days in Holy Week. In the monastic practice, it was a service of prayers and readings from Scripture. As the light began to dawn, the candles used for reading were gradually extinguished, so that at the end of the service, the rising sun provided the necessary light for reading and singing

GATHERING

(All gather in silence)

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Almighty God, look with loving mercy on your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, to be given over to the hands of sinners, and to suffer death on the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

SPECIAL MUSIC

Written in Red

Vocal Quartet

FIRST READING: Isaiah 52:13--53:12

A reading from Isaiah.

The fourth servant poem promises ultimate vindication for the servant, who made his life an offering for sin. The servant pours himself out to death and is numbered with the transgressors, images that the early church saw as important keys for understanding the death of Jesus.

¹³See, my servant shall prosper;
he shall be exalted and lifted up,
and shall be very high.

¹⁴Just as there were many who were astonished at him
—so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance,
and his form beyond that of mortals—

¹⁵so he shall startle many nations;
kings shall shut their mouths because of him;
for that which had not been told them they shall see,
and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate.

^{53:1}Who has believed what we have heard?

And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

²For he grew up before him like a young plant,
and like a root out of dry ground;
he had no form or majesty that we should look at him,
nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.

³He was despised and rejected by others;
a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity;
and as one from whom others hide their faces
he was despised, and we held him of no account.

⁴Surely he has borne our infirmities
and carried our diseases;
yet we accounted him stricken,
struck down by God, and afflicted.

⁵But he was wounded for our transgressions,
crushed for our iniquities;
upon him was the punishment that made us whole,
and by his bruises we are healed.

⁶All we like sheep have gone astray;
we have all turned to our own way,
and the LORD has laid on him
the iniquity of us all.

⁷He was oppressed, and he was afflicted,
yet he did not open his mouth;
like a lamb that is led to the slaughter,
and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.

⁸By a perversion of justice he was taken away.
Who could have imagined his future?
For he was cut off from the land of the living,
stricken for the transgression of my people.

⁹They made his grave with the wicked
and his tomb with the rich,
although he had done no violence,
and there was no deceit in his mouth.

¹⁰Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain.
When you make his life an offering for sin,
he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days;
through him the will of the LORD shall prosper.

¹¹Out of his anguish he shall see light;
he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge.

The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous,

and he shall bear their iniquities.

¹²Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great,
and he shall divide the spoil with the strong;
because he poured out himself to death,
and was numbered with the transgressors;
yet he bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

¹Happy are they whose transgressions [|] are forgiven,
and whose sin is [|] put away!

²Happy are they to whom the LORD im- [|] putes no guilt,
and in whose spirit there [|] is no guile!

³While I held my tongue, my bones with- [|] ered away,
because of my groaning [|] all day long.

⁴For your hand was heavy upon me [|] day and night;
my moisture was dried up as in the [|] heat of summer.

⁵Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and did not con- [|] ceal my guilt.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD." Then you forgave me the guilt [|] of my sin.

⁶Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in [|] time of trouble;
when the great waters overflow, they [|] shall not reach them.

⁷You are my hiding-place; you preserve [|] me from trouble;
you surround me with shouts [|] of deliverance.

Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?
Were you there when they pierced him in the side?
Were you there when the sun re - fused to shine?
Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?

The congregation sits in silent darkness to underscore the drama. A loud noise is made during the darkness to represent the stone being rolled to seal the grave.

Bidding Prayers:

(Each invitation to prayer ends...) We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Procession of the Cross:

(Stand as the cross is brought to the front of the church.)

Behold, the life-giving cross, on which was hung the Savior of the whole world.

Oh, come, let us worship him.

(The cross is placed at the front of the church)

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

By your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

(At the end of the service, worshipers may come to the large cross to make a sign of reverence. Reverencing the cross may include actions such as pausing before the cross, bowing, kneeling before it for prayer, or touching it.)

Depart in silence

The service continues at 6:30 a.m. with the Easter Sunrise Service on Sunday, April 9th at the Ruritan Building in New Franklin.
