TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
NOVEMBER 17, 2024

November 17, 2024
Twenty-Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

November begins with All Saints Day and ends in or near Advent, when we anticipate Christ's coming again. It is fitting, then, that the readings today tell of the final resurrection and the end time. In the turmoil of hope, fear, and disbelief that these predictions provoke in us, Hebrews sounds a note of confident trust. Christ makes a way for us where there is no way, and we walk it confidently, our hearts and bodies washed in baptismal water, trusting the one who has promised forgiveness. The more we see the last day approaching, the more important it is to meet together to provoke one another to love.

GREETINGS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PIANO PRELUDE     It Is Well with My Soul     arr. John Purifoy

LIGHTING OF THE ALTAR CANDLES

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✙ one God,
our refuge,
our delight,
our beginning and our end.

Amen.

Let us come in truth before the one who loves us
and has freed us from our sin.

Eternal One, robed in majesty and mercy,
we confess that sin has taken hold of us
and we are complicit in its power.
We are disturbed in spirit and our hearts cannot rest.
Unbind us and set us free.
Lead us again to the waters of rebirth,
that we may live just and generous lives
for the good of your world
and the care of our neighbors,
following in the servant way of Jesus.
Amen.

These words are trustworthy and true:
Christ bore our sins once, for all, on the cross,
swallowing up death forever.

For his sake, you are ✙ forgiven
and God remembers your sin no more.
Let your heart be glad again,
and rejoice in your salvation.
Amen.

Amen.

CHOIR ANTHEM My Lord, What a Morning African American Spiritual

(The congregation is invited to sing on the final refrain, as directed).

FIRST READING: Daniel 12:1-3

A reading from Daniel.

<sup>1</sup> "At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. <sup>2</sup> Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. <sup>3</sup> Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever."

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 16

(read responsively between lector and congregation, beginning with the lector)

<sup>1</sup> Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;

I have said to the LORD, “You are my Lord, my good above all other.”

<sup>2</sup> All my delight is in the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people.

<sup>3</sup> But those who run after other gods
shall have their troubles multiplied.

<sup>4</sup> I will not pour out drink offerings to such gods,
never take their names upon my lips.

<sup>5</sup> O LORD, you are my portion and my cup;
it is you who hold my lot.

<sup>6</sup> My boundaries enclose a pleasant land;
indeed, I have a rich inheritance.

<sup>7</sup> I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel;
my heart teaches me night after night.

<sup>8</sup> I have set the LORD always before me;
because God is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.

<sup>9</sup> My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices;
my body also shall rest in hope.

<sup>10</sup> For you will not abandon me to the grave, nor let your holy one see the pit.

<sup>11</sup> You will show me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

A reading from Hebrews.

<sup>11</sup> Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup> But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” <sup>13</sup> and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” <sup>14</sup> For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup> by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), <sup>21</sup> and since we have a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup> let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup> Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup> And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup> not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

*GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (ELW p. 205)

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord and Sav - ior: o - pen now your sav - ing word.

Let it burn like fire with - in us; speak un - til our hearts are stirred.

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord, we sing for the good news that you bring.

*GOSPEL: Mark 13:1-8

The holy gospel according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

In the last week of his life, Jesus warned his disciples concerning trials that were to come upon them and upon the world. He exhorts the listener: Do not be alarmed.

<sup>1</sup> As [Jesus] came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” <sup>2</sup> Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

<sup>3</sup> When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, <sup>4</sup> “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” <sup>5</sup> Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. <sup>6</sup> Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. <sup>7</sup> When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. <sup>8</sup> For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON *Freaked Out!

*PREFACE

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy,
that we should at all times and in all places
give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ;
who on this day overcame death and the grave,
and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.
And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

*HOLY, HOLY, HOLY (ELW p. 153)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, Lord God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

*THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

*LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Hymn Notes:

Today's communion hymn, "When Peace Like a River," (It Is Well with My Soul) was written by Horatio G. Spafford from Chicago. Spafford, a successful lawyer and a devout Christian lost his entire fortune in the great Chicago fire of 1871, as he was heavily invested in real estate along Lake Michigan. Just prior to the fire, his young son had died from scarlet fever. Spafford drowned his grief in work and rebuilding the city. Finally, desiring to get away, he booked passage in November of 1873 for his wife, his four daughters, and himself on a ship heading to Great Britain. At the last minute, he had to delay his departure but sent his wife and daughters ahead, planning to leave a few days later. On November 22, the ship on which his family was traveling was struck by an English vessel and sank in 12 minutes. Spafford's four daughters, along with 222 others all died, his wife managed to survive. Spafford immediately left to join his wife. This hymn is said to have been penned from words he spoke ("It is well, the will of God be done") as his ship approached the area of the ocean thought to be where the ship carrying his wife and daughters had sunk. It was later that he wrote the hymn, based on the above phrase. From one man's great sadness, today we have a beautiful hymn that speaks to many.

When Ernest Shurtleff's seminary class was preparing for graduation, they turned to Ernest, who had written two volumes of poetry, and asked him to write a hymn for their graduation ceremony. He wrote our sending hymn, "Lead On, O King Eternal" for that occasion. This hymn is really a prayer...a prayer for God's guidance. It speaks of marching and "fields of conquest" and "battle song" – not because it celebrates war, but because it acknowledges the daily struggle in which good people must engage against evil. It looks forward to the celebration of victory, not with clashing swords and stirring drums, but with "deeds of love and mercy," acknowledging that Christ calls us to conquer the world by demonstrating love and showing mercy rather than by using force. The hymn acknowledges the difficulties of the Christian life, standing armed only with holiness against "sin's fierce war." It acknowledges the reality of the cross, but celebrates the reality of the crown, the reward of those who are faithful. It closes with, "Lead on, O God of might!" (lectionary.org). It truly seems a fitting sending hymn as we close worship today, and following the congregational meeting, go out to do God's work in His Kingdom.
