SECOND SUNDAY OF CHRISTMAS
JANUARY 5, 2025

January 5, 2025
Second Sunday of Christmas

Within the gospel reading's profound words lies the simple message that God is revealed in a human person. Though we may try to understand how the Word existed with God from the beginning of time, the wonder we celebrate at Christmas is that the Word continues to dwell among us. Christ comes among us in the gathered assembly, the scriptures, the waters of new birth, and the bread and the wine. Through these ordinary gifts we receive the fullness of God's grace and truth.

GREETINGS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

ORGAN PRELUDE In Dulci Jubilo - JS Bach

LIGHTING OF THE ALTAR CANDLES

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✝ one God, whose steadfast love is everlasting.

Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God
and of one another.

God-with-us,
we confess that we have turned away
those seeking shelter,
claiming there is no room when we have plenty.
We have made power and wealth our idols,
while you show us true glory: a baby in a manger.
We have overlooked the shepherds,
expecting good news in prettier packaging.
Too often, we have valued violence
instead of your peace.
Turn us from our ways to your ways.
Grant us the grace to begin again.
Free us from all that keeps us bound,
and forgive our sin,
through Jesus Christ, who gives himself for us.
Amen.

GATHERING SONG Good Christian Friends, Rejoice (ELW 288)

CHOIR ANTHEM God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen Traditional English Carol

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 31:7-14

A reading from Jeremiah.

God promises to bring Israel back to its land from the most remote parts of exile. In Zion Israel will rejoice over God's gift of food and livestock. Young women will express their joy in dancing; God will give gladness instead of sorrow.

⁷ Thus says the LORD:

Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say, “Save, O LORD, your people,
the remnant of Israel.”

⁸ See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north, and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth,

among them the blind and the lame,
those with child and those in labor, together;
a great company, they shall return here.

⁹ With weeping they shall come,
and with consolations I will lead them back,
I will let them walk by brooks of water,
in a straight path in which they shall not stumble;
for I have become a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my firstborn.

¹⁰ Hear the word of the LORD, O nations,
and declare it in the coastlands far away;
say, "He who scattered Israel will gather him,
and will keep him as a shepherd a flock."

¹¹ For the LORD has ransomed Jacob, and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

¹² They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD,
over the grain, the wine, and the oil,
and over the young of the flock and the herd;
their life shall become like a watered garden,
and they shall never languish again.

¹³ Then shall the young women rejoice in the dance,
and the young men and the old shall be merry.
I will turn their mourning into joy,
I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.

¹⁴ I will give the priests their fill of fatness,
and my people shall be satisfied with my bounty,
says the LORD.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 147:12-20

¹² Worship the LORD, ¹ O Jerusalem;
praise your ¹ God, O Zion,

¹³ who has strengthened the bars ¹ of your gates and has blessed your chil- ¹ dren within you.

¹⁴ God has established peace ¹ on your borders and satisfies you with the ¹ finest wheat.

- ¹⁵ God sends out a command | to the earth,
a word that runs | very swiftly.
- ¹⁶ God gives | snow like wool,
scattering | frost like ashes.
- ¹⁷ God scatters | hail like bread crumbs.
Who can stand a- | gainst God's cold?
- ¹⁸ The LORD sends forth the | word and melts them;
the wind blows, and the | waters flow.
- ¹⁹ God declares the | word to Jacob,
statutes and judg- | ments to Israel.
- ²⁰ The LORD has not done so to any | other nation;
they do not know God's judgments. | Hallelujah!

SECOND READING: Ephesians 1:3-14

A reading from Ephesians.

In Jesus, all of God's plans and purposes have been made know as heaven and earth are united in Christ. Through Jesus, we have been chosen as God's children and have been promised eternal salvation.

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, ⁴ just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. ⁵ He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, ⁶ to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. ⁷ In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace ⁸ that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight ⁹ he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, ¹⁰ as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. ¹¹ In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, ¹² so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. ¹³ In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; ¹⁴ this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (ELW p. 205)

GOSPEL: John 1:[1-9] 10-18

The holy gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

John begins his gospel with this prologue: a hymn to the Word through whom all things were created. This Word became flesh and brought grace and truth to the world.

[¹ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

² He was in the beginning with God. ³ All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being ⁴ in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. ⁵ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

⁶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷ He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. ⁸ He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. ⁹ The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.]

¹⁰ He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. ¹¹ He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him.

¹² But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, ¹³ who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

¹⁴ And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. ¹⁵ (John testified to him and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me.'") ¹⁶ From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. ¹⁷ The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.*
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERING PRAYER

God of heaven and earth,
from the beginning, you have called forth life,
in which you take delight.
The trees, the fields, and the seas sing for joy.
Bless now these gifts, received from your bounty,
that we may join the chorus of creation to tell of your salvation from day to day.

Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

PREFACE

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places
give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ.

In the wonder and mystery of the Word made flesh
you have opened the eyes of faith to a new and radiant vision of your glory, that, beholding the God made visible,
we may be drawn to love the God whom we cannot see.
And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY – *Sung to the Tune of Hark! The Herald Angels Sing

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of heav'n and earth adored.
O how blest is he who comes in the holy name of God.
Joyful, all you nations rise; join the triumph of the skies;
With angelic hosts proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem!"
Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn king!"

THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me.
Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

COMMUNION SONG Come to the Table (ELW 481)

All who are hun - gry and thirst - y, come, and your souls will be fed.

Hymn Notes:

Our anthem by the men this morning, “God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen” is one of the oldest existing Christmas carols, dating to the 1500s and possibly even earlier. In the 15th Century, church music was typically sung in Latin and was dark and rather somber. As a result, most churchgoers did not like the religious songs of the period. So the faithful went about singing more uplifting songs in the streets. The nightwatchmen at the time are said to have sung “God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen” as they walked the streets of London. The first printed version of the song appeared in 1760 when it is referred to as “Tidings of Comfort and Joy.” The melody was first in print in 1829, and the melody and lyrics were published together in 1833 in a collection titled, “Christmas Carols Ancient and Modern,” compiled by William Sandys. The original meaning, in the 17th Century, of the word “rest” as it is used in this song meant “to keep or continue.” This use of “rest” was obsolete by 1760. In today’s language, the first line could read, “May God keep you in contented spirits, folks.” “God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen” has been a traditional carol since the mid-18th Century. Some speculate that this is due to Queen Victoria’s love of carols. The carol describes how Jesus has come to “save us all from Satan’s power when we were gone astray” which is an appropriate theme for all mankind. Although somber and yet uplifting and inspiring, it is centered around the birth of Christ and conveys the Christmas message of hope and abundant joy. In today’s world filled with unrest, could it be that we also need the message, “God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen” or “May God Keep you in contented spirits, folks.” (Branchliving.com).

The earliest known publication of our sending song, “Go Tell It on the Mountain” is attributed to John Wesley Work, Jr. (1871-1925). He grew up in Nashville and developed a love of music from his father, a church choir director. He earned a Master’s in Latin and became a teacher of Latin and ancient Greek, but his first love continued to be music. He became the first African-American collector of Negro spirituals, which had been shared by the oral tradition up to this point. The earliest printed version of "Go Tell" appeared in the book Religious Songs of the Negro as Sung on the Plantations (new edition, 1909) by Thomas P. Fenner. The text of "Go Tell It on the Mountain" references the annunciation to the shepherds described in the Gospel of Luke. (Wikipedia) What a wonderful carol to close out the Christmas season and share the good news with the world! “Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere that Jesus Christ is born!”
