PRESENTATION OF OUR LORD
FEBRUARY 2, 2025

Presentation of Our Lord

The Presentation of Our Lord is referred to in some corners of the church as Candlemas because of an ancient tradition of blessing all the candles to be used in the church in the coming year at the mass celebrated on that day. It was a way of underscoring the truth of Simeon's confession that this baby Jesus was "a light for revelation to the Gentiles" and a light for glory to Israel. Let the light of every candle in church be a little epiphany of the love of God for all people in the person of God's son, Jesus, the light of the world.

GREETINGS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

ORGAN PRELUDE Of the Father's Love Begotten - David Lasky

LIGHTING OF THE ALTAR CANDLES

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✠ one God, our creator,
our protector,
our wellspring of life.

Amen.

Trusting that God receives our words and the meditations of our hearts, let us confess our sin.

Merciful God,
you speak blessing and compassion into the world.

Forgive us for the ways we act with judgment, cruelty, or indifference.

We ignore the needs of our neighbors;
we resist your call to oppose injustice;
we give in to scarcity and fear;
we assume the worst about one another.

Cleanse us from our faults and release us from their grasp.

Show us your lovingkindness.
Restore our hearts and repair your world,
that we may live in Christ's ways.

Amen.

God proclaims these words of assurance:
"Do not fear, for I have redeemed you.
I have called you by name. You are mine."

In ✠ Christ, you are forgiven.

In the Spirit, you are made free.

Refreshed by the waters of mercy,
live anew as beloved children of God. Amen.

Let us pray.

Almighty and ever-living God, your only-begotten Son was presented this day in the temple. May we be presented to you with clean and pure hearts by the same Jesus Christ, our great high priest, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

CHOIR ANTHEM Where Shepherds Lately Knelt - Jaroslav Vajda

FIRST READING: Malachi 3:1-4

A reading from Malachi.

This reading concludes a larger section (2:17—3:5) in which the prophet speaks of the coming of the God of justice. Malachi looks for that day when the wondrous power of God will purify the priestly descendants of Levi who minister in the temple at Jerusalem.

¹ See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. ² But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; ³ he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. ⁴ Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 84

¹ How dear to me ¹ is your dwelling,
O ¹ LORD of hosts!

² My soul has a desire and longing for the courts ¹ of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the ¹ living God.

³ Even the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest where she may ¹ lay her young, by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts, my king ¹ and my God.

⁴ Happy are they who dwell ¹ in your house!
They will always be ¹ praising you.

⁵ Happy are the people whose strength ¹ is in you, whose hearts are set on the ¹ pilgrims' way.

⁶ Those who go through the balsam valley will find it a ¹ place of springs, for the early rains have covered it with ¹ pools of water.

⁷ They will climb from ¹ height to height, and the God of gods will be ¹ seen in Zion.

⁸ LORD God of hosts, ¹ hear my prayer;
give ear, O ¹ God of Jacob.

⁹ Behold our defend- ¹ er, O God;
and look upon the face of ¹ your anointed.

¹⁰ For one day in your courts is better than a ¹ thousand elsewhere.

I would rather stand at the threshold of the house of my God than dwell in the tents ¹ of the wicked.

¹¹ For the LORD God is both sun and shield, bestowing | grace and glory;
no good thing will the LORD withhold from those who walk | with integrity.

¹² O | LORD of hosts,
happy are they who put their | trust in you!

SECOND READING: Hebrews 2:14-18

A reading from Hebrews.

Jesus shared human nature fully so that his death might be for all humans a liberation from slavery to death's power. Here the writer uses the image of priestly service in the temple as a way of describing the life and saving death of the Lord Jesus. He is the high priest who offers his life on behalf of his brothers and sisters.

¹⁴ Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, [Jesus] himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵ and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. ¹⁶ For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. ¹⁷ Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. ¹⁸ Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

*GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: Luke 2:22-40

The holy gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

This story is a study in contrasts: the infant Jesus with the aged prophets; the joy of birth with the ominous words of Simeon to Mary; the faithful fulfilling of the law with the presentation of the one who will release its hold over us. Through it all, we see the light of God's salvation revealed to the world.

²² When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, [Mary and Joseph] brought [Jesus] up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord ²³ (as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord”), ²⁴ and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, “a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”

²⁵ Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him.

²⁶ It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. ²⁷ Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law,

²⁸ Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

²⁹ “Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace,
according to your word;

³⁰ for my eyes have seen your salvation,

³¹ which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,

³² a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.”

³³ And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him.

³⁴ Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, “This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed ³⁵ so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too.”

³⁶ There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, ³⁷ then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. ³⁸ At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

³⁹ When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. ⁴⁰ The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,

he descended to the dead.*
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH (Please respond)

P: God of grace, C: hear our prayer.

PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you always.
And also with you.

OFFERTORY In the Bleak Midwinter (ELW 294)

What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
if I were a wise man, I would do my part;
yet what I can I give him – give my heart.

OFFERING PRAYER

God of grace, your love reaches to the heavens, and your abundance to the depths of the seas.
Bless what we offer to your service:
our gifts, our abilities, and our hearts.
Let us overflow with gratitude and generosity,
now and always. Amen.

*GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

*PREFACE

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places
give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ;
who on this day overcame death and the grave,
and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.
And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

*HOLY, HOLY, HOLY (ELW p. 108)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The joy of the Lord is our strength.
Come, share in this meal of gladness.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Nourishing God,

and send us out to embody your good news
of liberation and healing for the sake of the world.
In the name of Christ we pray,
Amen.

BLESSING

The world now is too dangerous and too beautiful for anything but love.
May your eyes be so blessed you see God in everyone.
Your ears, so you hear the cry of the poor.
May your hands be so blessed that everything you touch is a sacrament.
Your lips, so you speak nothing but the truth with love.
May your feet be so blessed you run to those who need you.
And may your heart be so opened,
so set on fire, that your love,
your love, changes everything.

May God bless you in this sending, +Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Music Notes/Hymn Notes:

Our communion hymn this morning, "Let all mortal flesh keep silence" is one of the earliest Christian hymns still in common use in the church today. Traditionally, its roots date to the fourth century and it was originally credited to St. James, the brother of Jesus. However, later scholars believe it to have been created under Cyril of Jerusalem around c. 347. It was written in both Greek and Syriac and is still sung in Jerusalem on the Sunday after Christmas. The hymn is appropriate for both communion services and the celebration of the Incarnation. (Hymn Notes for Church Bulletins; Austin Lovelace).

Today we observe the Presentation of Our Lord in the temple in Jerusalem, which occurs 40 days after Christmas. It was on this day that Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple and presented him to God with a sacrifice of two turtle doves. Two prophets met Mary and Joseph in the temple, Simeon and Anna. Both had been eagerly waiting for the birth of the Messiah and when Jesus appears in the temple, they recognize him. The proclamation of the child Jesus as God's Messiah is what makes today essentially a Christmas feast. Our sending hymn, "O Lord, Now Let Your Servant," is based on the Nunc Dimittis, a song often sung at the conclusion of communion. Today, we heard these words in the gospel reading, words spoken by Simeon when he held Jesus in his arms. What a fitting closing to our worship this morning. (Wikipedia.com)

Today's choir anthem is another hymn written by Rev Jaroslav Vajda whose information was shared a few Sundays ago in our music notes. "Where Shepherds Lately Knelt" was actually listed as a hymn for today and can be found in All Creation Sings #909. The hymn was written in 1986 for The 1987 Christmas Annual published by Augsburg Fortress. According to Pastor Vajda, he wanted to "place himself in spirit at the humble manger bed and review the implications of such a visit for himself and for all human beings. As the Christmas season truly comes to its conclusion, it is good to visit the manger one more time in order to ponder the significance of Immanuel, 'God-with-us' in the flesh." (Stephen P. Starke)
